

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

MAXIMO M. KALAW, Philippine Secretary of Interior, is here to ask President Harding to work for independence for our far eastern proteges.

MRS. HERBERT HOOVER, National President of the Girl Scouts (at extreme right) was very much interested in the case of Miss Helen Townley whom she met at the breaking of ground for the Girl Scouts home at Elizabeth, N. J. Miss Townley is captain of two scout troops in Elizabeth and does much of the secretarial work for them. The other ladies are Mrs. Fred Edley, of New York (center) and Miss Sibyl Canadine, of London.

TERRESTRIAL MAGNETISM is the subject Dr. Louis A. Bauer of Washington is studying on a trip which includes Australia, New Zealand, Samoa.

ERNEST GREENWOOD, of Washington, has been elected First Vice-President of the International Civitan Club, now in session in Chattanooga.

ALL BOUND ROUND with a hempen string, thirteen-year-old Alma Mann, of Panama, dives into deep water and comes out all right.

WEST POINTERS STOOD AT ATTENTION during annual inspection by the Congressional Board of Visitors—Congressmen John F. Miller, John M. Morin, R. Wayne Parker, H. M. Wurzbach and Hubert F. Fisher.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY has extended a welcome to Mrs. Robert Henderson, wife of Lieut. Henderson, Med. Corps, U. S. N., recently detailed to this city.

PRESIDENT BERT JEWELL of the Union Railway Employees will be a big factor if the men vote to strike against decreases in wages.

HENRY FORD'S SCHEME to operate a nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals brought amused smiles to the faces of these Brits. They are Brig. Gen. Oswald Kesteven Chance, C. M. G., D. S. O. (standing), and Marshal H. Paine, here to attend the National Fertilizer Association Convention.

LATEST PHOTOGRAPH OF CHIEF JUSTICE TAIT who is soon to sail for England to make a thorough study of the judicial system there. He hopes to learn methods of expedition in legal procedure. Heaven knows that if there is anything which will poke up our courts—

AFTER REPORTING TO WASHINGTON, John Ball Osborne with his wife and daughter will go to Connecticut. He is American Consul General in Genoa.

HERE'S A NICE OUTDOOR SPORT for summer. These barrels were used in an obstacle race with many mirth-provoking features at Herne Hill, England. Sure, it's a peculiar sense of humor they have.

AND HERE WE HAVE Lambert Hillyer, former famous college athlete, who keeps in condition by "jumping through his foot." Practice this on your mattress.

FORMER SENATOR CHARLES DICK, who owns several hotels in Washington, has declared himself candidate for a seat in the Senate from Ohio.

MAJOR DANIEL SULLIVAN, superintendent of police, will represent Washington at the Police Chiefs' Convention in San Francisco next week.

THIS IS THE SHIP in which Capt. Amundsen, Arctic explorer, is going to sail from Seattle, Washington, for the North Pole.

WASHINGTON AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS! The Times is desirous of publishing some of your pictures on this page. Send in news or action shots and you will be paid for them, if used. For each photograph used The Times will pay $3. For each photograph retained for future use $2 will be paid. The Photographs must be exclusive to The Times. They must be clear prints and illustrate a news happening or recent event in the National Capital. A picture of a dignitary with a silk hat isn't much, but if you snap him in overalls, rush in with the print. Be sure to write your name and address, as well as a description of the news event, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, if you want the pictures returned.

See the News of the World AT ALL LEADING THEATERS SHOWING INTERNATIONAL NEWS Released by Universal Film Exchanges